SEAGULLS WASHED OUT

Last weekend was the first wash out of the season with all Saturday games cancelled.

This weeks newsletter has a couple of reminders on Covid and conduct for the information of players, volunteers and spectators.

Saturday the 22nd we will have home games and team photo's will be taken.

Hopefully the weather holds out and games are held this weekend.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Whilst we have a great bunch of caring parents and volunteers at our club, we are taking this opportunity to remind team officials and spectators to always be aware of their responsibilities when representing their club and to remain conscious at all times of the NRL Code Of Conduct.

According to the general principles of the code, participants are encouraged and expected to:

- show positive acts of sportsmanship,
- demonstrate the greatest levels of respect
- lead by positive example
- celebrate the “good news” stories
- accept that the integrity of the sport is of paramount importance.
